Battle of the Sexes

Please see the email sent to you today explaining the competition our students are participating in. All proceeds from the coin collections will go to the winner's charity of their choosing.

There are fun dress up days, a dodgeball tournament, and more.

AP Testing in May

If your student is in an AP class, testing will begin in May.

Please check on google classroom or ask your student when their exam will be held.

Students must arrive promptly to their exam because the testing window is regulated by College Board and cannot be modified locally.

Please do not schedule your student for any appointments on their testing day.
